

SEPTEMBER PROGRAM

SEP 1

11.30 AM
ACROBATICS
CIRQ'ALLURE

Alejandro Perdomo and Tobia Florence from the acrobatic group Cirq'allure will perform breathtaking aerial acrobatics in a performance of excerpts from their new, socially critical duo piece "Trade-OFF".

10AM – 2PM
BRUNCH
DIEU HUYEN TRAN

Huyen Tran, founder of the NU Feast Club and the Gohlis restaurant Le Caphe, will be serving a Vietnamese brunch of colorful, fresh dishes using regional produce.

SEP 08

1PM – 2.00PM
CONCERT
KUPFERQUARTETT

Kupferquartett, a string quartet formed by four orchestral musicians from Oper Leipzig/Musikalische Komödie, will perform a short concert of Baroque and modern music, including works by Wagner and Paul Hindemith.

10AM – 2PM
BRUNCH
STEVIES BREAKFAST

Stevie Lyons, an Irish chef who previously worked at Dankbar and Grato Leipzig, returns to Glasfabrik to serve another delicious brunch. Stevie also serves a monthly breakfast at Café Alma.

SEP 15

11 – 12PM
BOOK READING
CAROLA SCHIMEK,
PFERDEWETTER

Author Carola Schimek will present her debut book, PFERDEWETTER, a captivating collection of short stories, poems, and dialogues that offers a vivid portrayal of Berlin's gastronomic and cultural scene in moments of crisis, blending absurdity, humor, and deep reflection.

10AM – 2PM
BRUNCH
FLAMING FLAMES

Carola's Berlin-based cooking collective, Flaming Flames, will prepare a wonderful and diverse Mexican brunch.

SEP 22

12PM
PRESENTATIONS
CLAUDIA LAGUNA,
DUNIESKY MARTIN,
YASSER GONZALEZ

Three Cubans visiting Glasfabrik will make special presentations about art and urban activism in Havana. Curator Claudia Laguna from the Ludwig Foundation of Cuba will present a survey of the work of emerging young artists in Cuba; artist Duniesky Martín will present his work focusing on the landscapes of memory; and urban activist Yasser Gonzalez from the group Citykleta will discuss his work making Havana a bicycling city.

11AM – 6PM
SAUNA
PROSECCO WELLNESS

Leipzig-based collective Prosecco and Wellness will be leading a final sauna session of the summer! Fruits and snacks will be served.